

Mason W. Zimmer

(860) 682-8419 | mwzimm23@stlawu.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/mason-zimmer-022875270

Education

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |             |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| St. Lawrence University , Canton, NY                                                                                                                                                                                                  | May 2027    |
| Bachelor of Science, Mathematics &amp; Statistics                                                                                                                                                                                     | 3.457/4.000 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Exploring potential paths in quantitative finance and law</li><li>Scholarships</li><li>Leadership Award (100,000 over four years)</li><li>Academic Excellence Award (28,000 over four years)</li></ul> |             |
| Kingswood Oxford , West Harford, CT                                                                                                                                                                                                   | May 2023    |
| High School Diploma                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 3.700/4.000 |

Work Experience

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Raw Bar Technician , Oyster Club , Mystic, CT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | May 2024 - Aug 2024 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Prepared and presented 200+ oysters per shift with precise knife technique and strict adherence to food safety standards, ensuring premium quality and zero contamination incidents.</li><li>Delivered high-touch, tableside guest experiences by educating members on oyster varieties, flavor profiles, and sourcing, contributing to elevated dining satisfaction in a luxury club environment.</li><li>Maintained raw bar mise en place, monitored seafood inventory freshness, and collaborated with culinary leadership to support seamless service during high-volume events and private functions.</li></ul>                                                        |                     |
| Member Services &amp; Dock Attendant , Shennecossett Yacht Club , Groton, CT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | May 2022 - Aug 2025 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Returned for 4 consecutive summer seasons to deliver front-of-house service at a high-traffic marina, assisting 100+ members and guests daily with dockage coordination, fuel services, and hospitality support.</li><li>Safely operated marine fueling systems and performed vessel pump-out waste services in compliance with environmental and safety regulations, ensuring efficient turnaround and zero reported safety incidents.</li><li>Drove ancillary revenue by selling beverages and dockside retail items while building strong member relationships, contributing to an elevated guest experience and repeat seasonal clientele.</li></ul>                    |                     |
| Yacht Waste Removal Technician , Pete's Marine Services , Mystic, CT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | May 2025 - Aug 2025 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Operated a 23-ft pump-out vessel to service recreational and commercial yachts across Mystic, Groton, Stonington, New London, Ledyard, and Fishers Island, ensuring timely and efficient dockside and mooring services.</li><li>Performed black and grey water extraction in compliance with environmental and maritime regulations, preventing marine pollution and maintaining 100% adherence to safety and sanitation standards.</li><li>Coordinated directly with yacht owners, captains, and marina personnel to schedule services, manage high-volume summer demand, and deliver professional, customer-facing support in a fast-paced coastal environment.</li></ul> |                     |

Professional Experience

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Central Treasurer, Budget Committee , Thelomathesian Society , Canton, NY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Dec 2025 - Present |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Chair the Budget &amp; Finance Committee, overseeing allocation, auditing, and financial reporting of the Student Activity Fund supporting 100+ student organizations.</li><li>Evaluate and approve funding requests, manage budget deliberations, and ensure equitable distribution of funds in alignment with institutional policies and governance standards.</li><li>Strengthen financial transparency and accountability by implementing structured review processes, tracking expenditures, and presenting budget reports to student leadership and stakeholders.</li></ul> |                    |

Technical Skills

Professional: Customer Service, Operations Coordination, Financial Oversight, Risk Management, Leadership
Interests: Outdoor Recreation, Mathematics, Music, Art, Traveling, Fitness